

SEMILLA AXIS
GENESIS 50

Objective: Imitate these "great" patriarchs who knew how to live each moment, all living by faith and for faith. (Hebrews 11:17 – 22)

Icebreaker:

- 1.- In how many different cities have you lived?
- 2.- Complete the following sentence: "When I die I would like my family to smile when remembering _____"
- 3.- For children: When you do something bad what is harder for you, shame or guilt? (Parents help the child understand the question)

To observe in our Bible:

- 1.- What occupied Jacob's mind and heart before he died? Let's discover it together by reading verses 1 to 6
- 2.- How do you think Jacob ended his days after reading verses 7 to 14?
- 3.- Let's read verses 15 to 21 to discuss which of the actions or the words of Joseph towards his brothers impresses you the most and why?
- 4.- What is the certainty that Joseph has before dying? Let's read and discuss verses 22-26.

To reflect / Apply.

- 1.- What biblical truths are those that are most present in your day to day?
- 2.- How would you like to finish your days?
 - a) with great faith
 - b) with a lot of money
 - c) having worked hard for God
 - d) having given to the poor and the needy
 - e) other
- 3.- On which side of Grace do you find yourself now: the one who needs to receive it or the one who needs to give it to others?
- 4.- How are you preparing for the return of Jesus Christ? How do you think we should all prepare?

Let's have a time of prayer.

Ephesians 5:16 making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil.
