"You shall have no other gods before me." - Exodus 20:3

Objective: "To look at the first commandment from different angles , in order to apply it to our lifestyle."

Ice-Breaker: (Include everyone in the conversation)

1. Who sets your house rules?
2. Which person in your life are you grateful for?
3. For the kids: Which has been the best gift you've received this past year? Who gave it to you?

Questions about the Text:

1. Read VV.1-17; After reading the 10 commandments, which of the 10 commandments would you say is the most counter-cultural in our society?
2. In light of VV.1-2; On whom do these 10 commandments reside on?
3. Let's make a list about everything we learn about God in VV.1-2.
4. Read V.3; Everyone in the group put this commandments in your own words.

Go Deeper: (Take a moment and answer these 4 questions, to discover which "gods" we might have)

1. What or who gets your best compliments?
2. In who or what do you have your trust in?
3. With who or where do you seek for answers, satisfaction, purpose?
4. What is the source of your Joy?

Pray for One Another

Verse To Memorize: Exodus 20:1-3 | "And God spoke all these words, saying, "I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. "You shall have no other gods before me."
