Objective: To understand the third commandment, by looking at it from different angles, and applying it to our life.

Ice Breaker: (Introduce everyone in the conversation)

1. Is there anything you are very grateful about your parents?
2. To whom do you feel closest too? Your mom or your dad?

To Observe / Apply

1. What does this commandment reveal about God's character and attributes?
2. In a patriarchal culture, like the Jewish one, why do you think God decides to be represented through the family (both father and mother)? What implications could this mean for us?
3. What reason does V.12 give us to honor our parents? How does Paul emphasize this in Ephesians 6:2-3?
  - a. What does it mean to you when it says, "Honor your parents so that your days may be long?"
4. How do you think that a child, teenager, young adult, adults can honor their parents?
  - a. What does our culture say about honoring our parents?
5. How do you honor your parents?
  - a. How do you think you can honor them this week?
